Board of Supervisors
Chamber Report

The Chamber received one application in the last month.

The Madison Chamber of Commerce Annual Banquet was held Monday, November 17th. Brett Leake, a motivational speaker and comedian did a phenomenal job and was both hilarious and touched on many subjects Madison deals with on a daily basis.

The Chamber Board members voted on new Board for 2015 (attached).

Promoted Small Business Saturday. Working on a couple of Ribbon Cuttings for new businesses.

Sending out dues notices for 2015 and updating information.

Tourism

Madison's Friday Night Christmas Lights was Friday, December 5th.

The Agri-Artisan group working on website and brochure via the grant and the The Virginia Piedmont group (RRRC) has a free "blitz" at the Manassas Welcome Center where we'll give a preview and promote our counties for November-December! America's Wine Country, from Fauquier south to Cville to include Madison applying for grant.

Working on Schedule of Events for 2015. The Visitor Center had approx 40 true visitors, 4, 154 hits to the website and 609 likes to Facebook page (21 new likes) this month. Preparing for transition and will be setting up new meeting time for Tourism Committee.

Respectfully submitted,

Tracey
